ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING GRANTING THE MOTION OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA EDISON COMPANY TO EXTEND DUE DATE FOR SUBMISSION OF QUARTERLY REPORTS COVERING FIRST QUARTER
2003 ENERGY EFFICIENCY PROGRAMS

This ruling grants the motion of Southern California Edison Company (SCE) to extend the due date for the submission by the investor-owned utilities (IOUs) of their quarterly reports covering the first quarter 2003 energy efficiency programs from May 1, 2003 to May 15, 2003.

The Commission's Energy Efficiency Policy Manual requires the IOUs to submit quarterly reports covering their first quarter 2003 energy efficiency programs (First Quarter 2003 Quarterly Reports) on May 1, 2003. Also due on May 1, 2003, however, are the IOUs' 2003 applications in the Annual Earnings Assessment Proceeding (AEAP). The First Quarter 2003 Quarterly Reports and the AEAP applications are voluminous and labor-intensive filings, prepared in large part by the same personnel for each IOU. IOUs state that the task of preparing, completing and submitting both filings on the same date is onerous. No party objects to SCE's motion.

SCE's request for an extension of the First Quarter 2003 Quarterly Report due date to May 15, 2003 is reasonable. The extended due date would allow the IOUs to produce comprehensive First Quarter 2003 Quarterly Reports and AEAP applications without imposing undue burdens or delays in either this proceeding or the AEAP.

IT IS RULED that Southern California Edison's motion to extend the due date to May 15, 2003 for submission of quarterly reports covering the first quarter 2003 is granted.

Dated April 14, 2003, at San Francisco, California.
